

ECONOMY LEAGUE
GREATER PHILADELPHIA
Information, Insight, Integrity.

AN AFFILIATE OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ECONOMY LEAGUE, INC.

STEVEN T. WRAY
Executive Director

Steve Wray was named Executive Director of the Economy League of Greater Philadelphia in 2006. As Deputy Director from 1995-2006, he managed the Economy League's research projects and their foundation support, media relations, and staff. In addition, Wray was Project Director of IssuesPA, an award-winning, non-partisan web-based initiative to increase the coverage and attention to statewide issues. Other notable projects he headed include the Economy League's analysis of the I-95/PA Turnpike connection and of the region's arts community and knowledge industry. He led the organization's work on behalf of the potential Philadelphia bid for the Olympics.

Wray is a Trustee of the Government Research Association and a member of the International Economic Development Council and of the Urban Land Institute, Philadelphia Chapter. He also serves on the board of the Health Care Improvement Foundation. Wray is a 2008 Ford Foundation Fellow of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives' Regional Sustainable Development program.

Prior to the Economy League, Wray served as Policy Director to Pennsylvania Lt. Governor Mark Singel, Associate with Jones Lang Wootton USA in New York, and Consultant to the Allegheny Conference on Community Development (Pittsburgh). Wray received an MS in Public Management and Policy from Carnegie Mellon University and a BA in Public Policy from Duke University.

The Economy League of Greater Philadelphia is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to research and analysis of the region's resources and challenges with the goal of promoting sound public policy and increasing the region's prosperity.